Akashic Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 352 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.2in. x 0.9in. A psychologically and emotionally astute family portrait, with dark themes like racism, cancer and the bittersweet longing of the immigrant. --New York Times Book Review (Editors Choice) Nunez has created a moving and insightful character study while delving into the complexities of identity politics. Highly recommended. --Library Journal (starred review) Nunez deftly explores family strife and immigrant identity in her vivid latest . . . with expressive prose and convincing characters that immediately hook the reader. --Publishers Weekly (starred review) Nunez offers an intimate portrait of the unknowable secrets and indelible ties that bind husbands and wives, mothers and daughters. --Booklist The award-winning author of Prosperos Daughter has written a novel more intimate than her usual big-picture work; this moving exploration of immigrant identity has a protagonist caught between race, class and a mother's love. --Ms. Magazine Probing and lyrical, this fantastic novel is one of Nunez's best yet. --Edwidge Danticat ANNA IN-BETWEEN is Elizabeth Nunez's finest literary achievement to date. In spare prose, with laserlike attention to every word and the juxtaposition of words to each other, Nunez returns to her themes of emotional alienation, within the context of class and color discrimination, so richly developed in her earlier novels. Anna, the novel's main character, who has a successful publishing career in the U. S. , is the daughter of an upper-class Caribbean family. While on vacation in the island home of her birth she discovers that her mother, Beatrice, has breast cancer. Beatrice categorically rejects all efforts to persuade her to go to the U. S. for treatment, even though it is, perhaps, her only chance of survival. Elizabeth Nunez is an award-winning author of seven novels. She is a distinguished professor at Hunter College, CUNY, and divides her time...
