The allowance should be computed by an apportionment of the cost of the patent or copyright or of its fair market value as of March 1, 1913, over the life of the patent or copyright since its grant, or since its acquisition by the taxpayer, or since March 1, 1913, as the case may be. If the patent or copyright was acquired from the government, its cost consists of the various government fees, cost of drawings, experimental models, attorney s fees, etc., actually paid. A taxpayer may elect not to take a depreciation allowance for patents, but such election if made is final and will control the returns for all subsequent years. (Reg. No. 45, Article 168.) It should be noted that the Department now specifically permits the depreciation of a patent based on its value as of March 1,...
