Excerpt: . . . Evaluation of the Veterans Health Administration Homeless Grant and Per Diem Program justification. Without complete and up-to-date assessments and treatment plans, providers could not be assured that services were targeting current needs of veterans. Additionally, clinicians should document each veterans conditions and progress frequently enough that other care providers can determine the overall status of the veteran and provide appropriate continuity of services, as needed. Interdisciplinary treatment planning is often used in medical and social service settings as a means to enhance client outcomes. When veterans are readmitted to GPDs, clinicians should document that the placements were clinically indicated so as to avoid duplication of previously unsuccessful placements and treatment plans. Recommended Improvement Action 1. The Acting Under Secretary for Health should require VHA to ensure that: a. VA-GPD liaisons or designees complete and submit Form Xs to NEPEC in a timely manner. b. National GPD Program Office staff monitor Form X completion rates...
