Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from From the Atlantic to the Pacific, Overland: A Series of Letters My Dear Mother: If blessings brighten as they take their flight, friends become precious in proportion as distance between them increases. Amid the varied duties of my life which have called me from the associations of childhood - as I have wandered in the wilderness - have stood upon the solitary mountain's peak - been surrounded by dangers, or have battled the storm upon the far-distant ocean, my thoughts have always fondly turned to you. Please to receive this token of remembrance, and feel that when these letters were penned, although you were distant in person, you were near me in thought.
