Could you see the muscles of his arms? How did his face look? What can you tell us about his hair? Using these questions to aid you, you may write a description of the village blacksmith LESSON VIII. THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH. 1. Under a spreading chestnut tree The village smithy stands; The smith, a mighty man is he, With large and sinewy hands; And the muscles of his brawny arms Are strong as iron bands. 2. His hair is crisp and black and long, His face is like the tan; His brow is wet with honest sweat, He earns whatever he can, And looks the whole world in the face, For he owes not any man. 3.-Week in, week out, from morn till night, You can hear his bellows blow; You can hear him swing his heavy sledge, With measured beat...
