That s where you re wrong! That s the NUMBER ONE misconception that keep people trapped in the artificial construct and constraints of the five-day, forty-hour workweek. In my book, Is It Wednesday Yet?, you will learn a plan that can have you out of the rat race by this time next year or sooner! You do know what the rat race is, right? Well, just in case you don t let me define it for you: The rat race is the daily grind of the nine to five, eight-hours-a-day, five-day workweek. And you can make your escape without having to get lucky! Get your life back starting today! Imagine, a four-day weekend, every week, for the rest of your working life! If your goal is to achieve a better work/life balance and by better what you mean is less work and more life than you have been able to accommodate within the constraints of the daily grind of nine-to-five, then skip to the chase: Work less! Look, that...
