Punch and Judy, Out of Town, Adventures of Two Children, Land of Little People, Sunbeams, Nurseryland, Honeymoon, c. In children s literature he has attained very distinguished success; and, indeed, the same may be said of every form of poetry that he has touched. There is little doubt that he is capable of doing greater things than he has yet attempted. Hitherto his poems have brought him not only popularity, but have been to him a source of very considerable pecuniary advantage, and these results he may deem a sufficient reward. During his labours as a tutor he followed up the study of the law, and in 1887 was called to the bar, and is at present in practice as a Barrister in London. In 1873 Mr. Weatherly married a daughter of the late Mr. John Hardwick, and is the father of three children; and to his happy married life may be attributed much of his success as a writer of domestic and nursery literature. William Cartwright Newsam. THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM. It was the eve of Christmas, the snow lay deep and white, I sat beside my window, and look d into the night; I heard the church bells ringing, I saw the bright stars shine, And childhood came again to me, with all its dreams divine. Then, as I listened to the bells, and watched the skies afar, Out of the East majestic there rose one radiant star; And ev ry other...
