

The Pub of Transience: A Collection of Poems and Haikus

By G Damala

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 138 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The world we live in is like your local pub - a place for the varied people who populate the surrounding area to hang out, have a drink, and get along, regardless of race, creed, color, religion, whatever the difference. Our culture has become quick to demand respect but reticent to give it. It's a vicious circle. And the brief time that we all spend here is the transience because our time here is fleeting, at least in the totality of it all. We should spend our brief time here loving others, respecting each other, cherishing the beauty all around us, challenging ourselves, and reflecting upon our mistakes, our past, and our actions. The Pub of Transience is a collection of poems from writer G Damala. The poem topics are varied, ranging from self-reflection (I Myself) to privilege (Entitlement) to erotic arousal (The Grain of Sand) to a stellar metaphor for love (Love Is a Binary Star System). Damala takes on a trip with him to Sin City (...)
