Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Advantage of Educated Labor in Missouri The following lecture on Skilled Labor is published in compliance with the accompanying request of the St. Louis Board of Trade, the recollection of whose personal courtesies will be gratefully cherished by the author of these pages. Professor S. Waterhouse, Washington University; Dear Sir: I enclose herewith the resolutions passed by this Board at its meeting on the 29th inst., and trust that you will accede to this request, and furnish for publication a copy of your very able and interesting address on Skilled Labor. I was individually deeply interested in the facts it contains, and believe much good will result from giving it a wide circulation at home and abroad. At a meeting held April 29th, 1872, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the St. Louis Board of Trade: Resolved, That we regard the recent Lecture of Professor Waterhouse on Skilled Labor of such public value as to merit our official sanction, believing that its impressive facts and convincing reasonings would, if widely circulated, exert an important influence upon the material interests of Missouri. Therefore Resolved, That the President of the Board be instructed to wait upon Professor Waterhouse and solicit a copy of his address for publication.
